REAL MECCA OF TOURISTS

He Will Establish a Freight and Passenger Service Between New York and New Republic Ports, Erect Hotel and Construct Wharves.

New York, March 1.—The Tribune says that according to private cable advices received here from Havana, Charles W. Morse, who is now in Cuba, has become enthusiastic over the development of the island and promises to build up a great passenger and freight service between New York, Havana and other Cuban ports. He hopes to put into service within a year two fast turbine steamers which will make the trip between New York and Havana in two days, which is one-half the time now consumed. Aside from the traffic improvement Mr. Morse will take up building in Havana a hotel, which, he says, will equal any resort in the world.

"I am confident, after my brief visit here," Mr. Morse said at Havana, "that better facilities for business must be provided. I intend to construct wharves where steamers can land their passengers and in time I promise that Cuba will be the real Mecca for tourists."

Before returning to New York Mr. Morse and his party will go to Mexico and visit several of the ports where his steamers touch.

WILKIE IN CHARGE.

Intimates That Suspicion Has Concentrated on One Man.

Chicago, March 1.—The hunt for the man who stole $173,000 from the Chicago subtreasury continues. John E. Wilkie, chief of the United States secret service, has arrived and taken personal charge of the case. He strongly intimated that suspicion had concentrated on one man, whose name he would not mention, but he was not ready for an arrest. Chief Wilkie said this suspected man might have had one or several accomplices, who expected to profit by the theft, but his theory was that one man had taken the money.

Four men were put through a searching examination by Mr. Wilkie. The men questioned were A. R. Boel, currency clerk and a nephew of Cashier Russell; Henry Locke, assistant paying teller, who has succeeded G. W. Fitzgerald; John M. Rogers, paying teller, and Frank F. Walsh, currency clerk. They were nearest the Fitzgerald cage. Fitzgerald will be examined later.

WORK OF GHOULS.

Open Grave of Choctaw Woman and Probably Robbed It.

Bennington, I. T., March 1.—The people of this community were shocked to hear that the grave of Mrs. Johnson Wooley, a full-blood Choctaw Indian, who was buried about two years ago, had been opened, and probably robbed. The crime was committed several days ago and it is not known exactly what the robbers secured. It is known, however, that valuables in the way of a watch, earrings, finger rings, etc., were on the body when it was buried.

SIX FIREMEN HURT.

Fifth Ward Schoolhouse at Allegheny, Pa., Destroyed by Flames.

Pittsburg, March 1.—One fireman was seriously injured and five others slightly hurt at a fire in Allegheny which completely destroyed the Fifth ward school building, a three-story structure, valued at $150,000. The school building, one of the finest at Allegheny, was attended by 1,500 pupils. Crossed electric wires are said to have caused the fire.

Steamer Goes Ashore.

Flushing, Holland, March 1.—The Dutch mail steamer Koenigen Wilhelm, from Queensborough, Eng., went ashore during a thick fog on a dyke eastward of the entrance to the harbor. Passengers and mails were landed safely.

Oxygen Administered.

New York, March 1.—Daniel Sully was administered oxygen. His condition is grave.

BALDWIN KILLS FOUR.

Rich Man Commits Some Terrible Deeds.

WAS NEARLY LYNCHED.

Under Bond on Charge of Criminally Assaulting a Girl Fourteen Years of Age, He Takes Latter's Life, Besides Murdering Three Others.

Bloomington, Ill., March 1.—Thomas Baldwin, a rich farmer and former merchant of Colfax, shot and killed Charles Kennedy and wife and Mrs. Sim Elsmen and daughter, Cora.

Baldwin was arrested. Baldwin, who is sixty-eight years of age, and a widower, is under bond, charged with criminal assault on Cora Elsmen, who was but fourteen years of age. He had settled with the girl's father for a sum of money, but was subsequently arrested, and blamed the Kennedys and Mrs. Elsmen for the prosecution. Baldwin narrowly escaped lynching at the hands of angry farmers. He surrendered to a deputy sheriff at Arrowsmith, and was driven hurriedly to Saybrook and brought by train to Bloomington.

CLAIMS CONSPIRACY.

Steve Adams Makes a Sensational Statement in Court.

Wallace, Ida., March 1.—That a deliberate conspiracy was formed among the officers of the penitentiary and the detectives to implicate the leaders of the Western Federation of Miners in the assassination of ex-Governor Stuenkel, and that the conspiracy was to be backed by false evidence, obtained by threats and bribes, is in effect the charge made by Steve Adams before the court.

Adams' statement was in substance as follows:

"On the sixth day after I was taken to Boise I was taken to the office of the penitentiary and introduced to Detective McPartland. He told me about 'Kelly, the bum' and other men who had turned state's evidence, and had been set free. He told me some Bible stories, too, but I cannot remember what they were, as I am not familiar with the Bible. He kept me until 4 or 5 o'clock in the morning trying to make me confess."

McPartland told me he wanted to convict Moyer, Haywood, Pettibone, St. John and Simpkins, whom he called 'cut throats.' If I wouldn't help to convict them, he said, I would be taken back to Colorado and either hanged or mobbed. When we parted McPartland told me he was my friend. They put me back into the cell with Harry Orchard, who talked to me about the need of backing up his story. I was somewhat frightened. The next day McPartland called again. I said I wouldn't do what he wanted me to do. He told me to think well what I was doing; to think of my family and save myself. He said he would see that my family was cared for."

When the confession was made McPartland led me on step by step and showed me all that he wanted me to say. He told me that what I said about the Tyler and Boule murders was only taken with the idea of making a strong chain of evidence to convict the officers of the Western Federation of Miners. He wanted the names of the officers of the federation used as much as possible all through the confession. Two or three days later Warden Whitney brought the confession to me to sign."

DITCHED AND BURNED.

Engineer Cremated, Fireman Fatally Hurt and Others Injured.

Connellsville, Pa., March 1.—Baltimore and Ohio train No. 49, west-bound, running forty-eight minutes late, and forty miles an hour, was wrecked near Indian Creek, seven miles east of here. The entire train, consisting of a combination smoking and baggage car, two day coaches and the private car of Superintendent Finney of the Pittsburg division of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, left the rails and after running 200 feet along the ties, was thrown into a ditch at the foot of the embankment, where the wreckage was completely burned.

The engineer was killed, the fireman badly hurt and the baggagemaster, express messenger, conductor and six passengers seriously injured. About forty passengers were more or less cut or bruised. The dead: Engineer Willie Irwin of Pittsburg was caught under the wrecked engine and burned to death before the eyes of the passengers, who were unable to liberate him.

CREVASSE WIDENS.

It Has Now Increased to Two Hundred and Fifty Feet.

New Orleans, March 1.—With the caving of nearly 100 feet of levee the crevasse near Jesuit's Bend, below New Orleans, has widened to about 250 feet. The caving occurred at the lower end of the break, where, for a week, a large gang has been attempting to "tie in" the broken ends of the bank.

Although a great quantity of water is now sweeping through the crevasse there is no longer any danger of life. The overflow appeared at Gretna, a village opposite New Orleans. Gretna is protected by levees, and will not be seriously flooded.

WHERE IS BUSTER BROWN?

COPYRIGHT 1906 BY THE BUSTER BROWN CO., CHICAGO.

Perhaps you wonder how we got Mr. R. F. Outcault, the creator of Buster Brown and the world's highest paid artist, to make for us a fresh signed drawing each week. But we did—it cost us no small price. We are glad they will be here. Buster believes in truth. We do. We make a profit, every merchant must. We do not "cut prices" except on broken sizes or when overloaded. We make prices right in the beginning. We wish to make money; who doesn't? But we can make more selling at a fair profit and doing a bigger business. Help yourself by making our volume larger. We invite you to look each week at Mr. Outcault's cartoons.

THE MORNING EAGLE

Entered at the Postoffice in Bryan, Texas as second-class matter.

BY CARNES & WALLACE

The Eagle is authorized to announce H. E. PEVERLEY

as a candidate for the office of City Secretary at the ensuing City election in April.

BRYAN, TEXAS, MARCH 2, 1907.

MEASURING BY OUR HALF BUSHEL.

We are too much inclined to expect all people to measure by our own standard in every particular. If we think it right to get up at 4 o'clock in the morning and sit around on the fence waiting for daylight to come so we can go to work, we get out of patience with the neighbor who is not seen till his fence as soon as the light begins to dawn. If we think it the proper thing to sit up until the wee small hours studying the laws of the Medes and Persians, we are too prone to be disgusted with the person who will waste all that time reading current fiction. If we delight in taking a leading part in a football scrimmage, we get out of patience with the man who wants to sit on the banks of the creek and idly fish all day. If corn bread and bacon is our favorite diet, we loathe the man who wants biscuit and a porterhouse steak for his meals. If we are grown-ups with matured thoughts of things and fully awake to the responsibilities of life, we do not indulge the childish whims of those inclined to look upon the more frivolous things of life. The immature mind of the child is not prepared to view life as we look at it and it is hard to bring it to a realization that "life is real, life is earnest," and we should exercise the most extreme patience and forbearance in dealing with it. The same thing should be done in our dealings with all those who have habits, customs and inclinations that differ from ours. We should remember that they, too, have a measure of their own from which they are perhaps considering us, and in endeavoring to win them to our ways of thought, we should not become intolerant. Perhaps they are trying to do some winning also.—Brownwood Bulletin.

THOMPSON CREEK BRIDGE COLLAPSED

Middle Span and One End Gave Way With Wagon and Mule Team Belonging to Mr. W. J. Roberts.

Mr. W. J. Roberts informed the Eagle yesterday of a serious accident to one of his colored drivers and a wagon and mule team at the Thompson Creek bridge on the Bryan and Skull Prairie road on Thursday afternoon.

The wagon with a four mule team in charge of Jim Davis, colored, was en route to town from Mr. Robert's farm after a load of corn, and the bridge broke down, precipitating wagon, mules and driver into the bed of the stream some twenty odd feet below.

The driver was considerably bruised up, as were also two of the mules, one of which was permanently injured. One of the mules fell partially on the driver, Davis, and caused the negro's principal injuries, while a part of the bridge struck the most seriously injured mule, which could not be released until the obstructing timber was cut away. Mr. Roberts reached the scene soon after the accident and helped to get his outfit out of the difficulty.

The Eagle is advised that the authorities will give immediate attention to the repairs on the bridge. The collapse included the middle span and one end.

PLANNING TO COMPLETE DEEP WELL.

Mr. McMahon of the firm of McMahon & Bigelow, well drilling contractors, was here from Navasota yesterday in consultation with his partner and Manager Preston of the water and light plant with reference to making an effort to find water in the well on the northeast side of the plant which was sunk to a depth of 860 feet several years ago, cased up and has since been standing without water in it. The well was stopped upon reaching what appeared to be a thick rock strata, and it is believed by sinking it further a fine deep well water supply can be secured. The Eagle would be glad to see this well completed while the rotary machine is here. The outfit is now being rigged up to complete the new middle well on the west side of the plant. Mr. Preston has not determined whether he will have the 860 foot well completed at this time or not, but he is considering the matter favorably.

IN-ER SEAL BANQUET.

The first division of the fourth corps of In-Er Seal cadets now in the city representing the National Biscuit Company gave an informal banquet last night at the Commercial hotel, at which representatives of some of the grocery stores, traveling men and others occupied seats at the table with the hosts. Two courses were served, Mr. Clark, chief the corps, acted as toastmaster, and nearly all present took a turn at speech making. The cadets gave interesting and instructive talks on the progressive manufacturing and selling methods of their company.

AUTHORITY TO INSPECT.

House Adopts the Free Conference Committee Report.

Austin, March 1.—The house adopted the free conference committee report on the bill giving the attorney general's department authority to inspect papers and documents of public corporations when it is deemed necessary in the prosecution of suits, etc.

The entire Friday morning session of the house was consumed in consideration of the Baskin-McGregor liquor bill. Speaker Love spoke at length on his proposed high license amendment, which he will offer at the proper time. His amendment provides for a uniform tax of $1,200 for beer and all other saloons.

The senate passed finally the bill regulating disorderly houses. By a vote of 17 to 15 the senate refused to concur in the house amendments to the anti-pass bill and it was sent to conference.

While the senate was under call on the anti-pass bill a resolution was brought up condemning newspapers which published the "Wine, Women and Song" telegram.

Senator Murray offered an amendment cutting out reference to the exonerated of Bailey.

Senator Barrett objected, and asked what senator would vote against sending such a libel on the legislature.

Senator Senter asked if the libel comprised of was "worse than Bailey's libel of the legislature."

Senator Greer made a vehement address, declaring Bailey had every insulted members of the legislature by calling them dogs and liars.

Representative Kindred offered a resolution in the house that members be inducted from Bailey's remarks in his speech the other night in the house until Jan. 1, 1909, so they may finish their respective campaigns for re-election.

In the senate the Hogg constitutional amendments were recommitted to give interested parties an opportunity to be heard on them.

SECOND LIEUTENANTS.

Three Former West Point Cadets Provided Positions in the Army.

Washington, March 1.—The appointment of B. O. Mahaffey of Texas, John A. Cleveland of Alabama and Traugott F. Keller of New York as second lieutenants in the army is provided for in a bill passed by the house. They were dismissed from the military academy for insubordination in 1901, but according to the committee report accompanying the bill their subsequent career has been especially praiseworthy and their parents urged that the young men be set right by congress.

One Killed, Fourteen Hurt.

Rio de Janeiro, March 1.—One man was killed and fourteen severely injured in two explosions that occurred aboard the Brazilian steamer Florenopolis. The men were loading gasoline when the explosions occurred.

Stevens Still at Panama.

Panama, March 1.—John F. Stevens has not sailed for New York. He will remain until his successor, Major Goethels, arrives. All the white canal employees have requested Engineer Stevens to withdraw his resignation.

HAROLD STONE ALLOWED BOND.

Young Man Charged with the Killing of H. L. Spratt, Waived Examination Yesterday—Bond Fixed at $1,000.00.

Harold Stone, the young man charged with the killing of H. L. Spratt at Millican at an early hour Thursday morning, and who arrived in Bryan from Navasota on an early morning train yesterday, and was placed in jail by Deputy Sheriff J. D. Conlee, waived examination before Justice L. D. McGee yesterday morning and his bond was fixed at $1000.00. District Court meets Monday and the investigation of the case will likely be taken up at once by the grand jury.

The Eagle representative called at the jail yesterday in company with Sheriff Nall and Deputy Sheriff Conlee, and when asked if he had anything to say about the case Mr. Stone stated that he had acted in self defense in the protection of his life. He related the experiences of the night of the killing, alleging that parties were about the premises where the tragedy occurred, peered into the windows and were seen with guns in their hands; that he was up and alert all the time and was restrained from shooting earlier in the night by persons in the house with him, and that he was well nigh exhausted when the shooting was done. He said that he had only an old shotgun in a delapidated condition with but two loads in it, which was in the house, and that he was unarmed otherwise, having nothing but a pocket knife. He told of going to the house of a physician after the shooting and notifying him to go to the scene of the tragedy, and afterwards of going on to Navasota, where he secured a room, and an officer came and tapped on his door before he had carried out an intention to surrender to the authorities.

Mr. Stone is a young man of athletic build, rather good looking and of good address. He was writing when the reporter called, and was perfectly composed in his manner.

REVIVAL MEETING

The revival meeting which began at the Methodist church last Sunday, is growing in interest with each succeeding service. Rev. I. F. Betts, who is assisting the pastor, is a strong scriptural and impressive preacher. His sermons furnish food for thought, and his styles are both pleasing and convincing. The people of Rockdale are especially fortunate in having such an elegant man of God to labor among them in this special meeting. Rev. H. M. Timmons, the gospel singer, is doing most excellent work as director of music for the meeting.—Rockdale Reporter.

Rev. S. W. Thomas, pastor of the Rockdale Methodist church, will be here Sunday to fill Dr. Betts' appointment at 11 o'clock. No preaching at night. Sunday school 9:45; Junior Missionary Society 3:30 p. m. Epworth League 6:30 p. m.

EVANS' EVIDENCE.

Alienist and Mr. Jerome Continue Dialogue on Thaw's Condition.

New York, March 1.—When the trial of Harry K. Thaw was resumed Friday morning District Attorney Jerome announced there had been received a second package of letters from J. D. Lyon, a Pittsburgh banker, who, until November last, was the custodian of Thaw's will. The letters received were directed to Mr.
Lyon by Thaw while in the tomb and all bear dates subsequent to June 25 last. Mr. Lyon first sent on only letters written prior to the Madison Square Roof Garden theater tragedy.
Mr. Jerome was anxious to have the later letters, and they were sent on by consent of Thaw's attorneys. The letters are held subject to the court's orders.

Dr. Britton D. L. Evans was recalled as soon as the letters from Pittsburgh had been examined by counsel and Mr. Jerome continued his cross-examination of the alienist.

"Taking all the letters you have read in the light of all you know about the case, what is your opinion as to the mental condition of this defendant at the time he wrote these letters?" was Mr. Jerome's first question.

Mr. Delmas promptly objected on the ground that the question assumed on witness' knowledge that was not in evidence.

Mr. Jerome withdrew the question and asked the witness if he had any knowledge of acts that had not been testified to. An argument resulted.
Mr. Jerome claiming the only point in the case is whether or not defendant was insane when the homicide was committed. He was anxious, he said, to bring out all the facts.

Dr. Evans was allowed to answer and said that so far as he could recall he had told all of importance he could remember or what he had heard and seen on his first three visits to Thaw in the tombs.

"Taking everything you have testified to into consideration, what, in your opinion, was the mental condition of defendant when he wrote those letters?" asked Mr. Jerome.

"He was in a state of mental instability."

"Do you mean he was insane?"

"Not necessarily. He was in a state of mental unsteadiness."

Mr. Jerome handed witness a copy of the letter Thaw wrote to Anthony Comstock complaining that "dens of vice" were maintained by Stanford White and "other rich scoundrels" for the ruin of young girls. After Dr.
Evans examined the letter some twenty minutes Mr. Jerome asked him if anything in the letter suggested the mental state of the writer.

"It shows," said the expert, "that his mind seemed to be running on young women and their supposed wrongs."

"Anything else?"

"It indicates a delusive state in the writer's mind."

"Were the delusions of an exalted or depressed nature?"

"I don't think there is enough in the letter for anybody to say as to that."

ADOLESCENT INSANITY.

This Was the Kind Thaw Had When He Took White's Life.

New York, March 1.—While Dr.
Evans was testifying Friday just before the noon recess he definitely stated that at the time Thaw sent Stanford White's soul into eternity he was suffering from an explosive outbreak of adolescent insanity. The alienist testified that cases of this form of insanity have been known to clear up over night.

AMPUTATIONS NECESSARY.

Construction Train Wreck Causes Two Deaths and Many Maimed.

Los Angeles, Cal., March 1.—In the wreck of a construction train on the Salt Lake railroad, near Leith, Nev., one man was killed and two were fatally injured and died later, and about forty were seriously hurt. The dead are Greek laborers.

An engine pushing two freight cars on which were carried construction crews, failed to slow down as it approached a string of cars loaded with construction material at a washout. A box car on the end shot upward and descended on the foremost flat car, injuring nearly every man aboard, together with many on the second car.
Nearly all of the injured are Greeks.
Many amputations must be performed.

SUCCUMBS TO ACCIDENT.

Oldest German-American Editor Departs This Life at Chicago.

Chicago, March 1.—Wilhelm Rapp, editor in chief of the Illinois Staats Zeitung and said to be the oldest German editor in the United States, is dead from the effects of a street car accident sustained four weeks ago.
Mr. Rapp's son is the husband of the opera singer, Madame Schumann-Heinck.

Smith Nominated.

Washington, March 1.—The nomination by the president of Amor Smith to be surveyor of customs at Cincinnati removes from the list one of the places to which the president had inmind the possible appointment of a negro. The president still has under consideration the question of giving some well known negro an office in Ohio.

Schooner Bottom Up.

Victoria, B. C., March 1.—The steamer Puebla reports passing the gasoline schooner Beale K. of San Francisco, bottom up, thirteen miles west-northeast of Cape Blanco. There was nothing to show what had become of the crew.

Dock Laborers on Strike.

Coruna, Spain, March 1.—A general strike of dock laborers has held up all vessels in this port.

THAW ACCUSES JEROME.

Charges Latter With Being Guilty of Unprofessional Conduct.

New York, March 1.—Harry K.
Thaw gave out to newspaper men a brief statement in which he accused District Attorney Jerome of having made unprofessional remarks in court, asserting that his wife's testimony was the absolute truth, and in conclusion declared that Mrs. Thaw's "natural real goodness" was above the comprehension of the prosecuting officer.

It was just before adjournment was taken Thursday, and after many hours of expert testimony as to the meaning of extracts from eight letters written by the defendant, with their relation to the sanity or insanity of the writer, that Thaw gave out his statement.
The circumstances attending the delivery of the statement to the newspaper men were about as interesting as the statement itself, which read:

"This is Mrs. Thaw's second statement since August. With chances of millions to one against her the catastrophe in 1901, it is wonderful that Mrs. H. K. Thaw prevailed in the cross-examination against the prosecution backed by blacklegs. Her testimony was the absolute truth.

"Our evidence was of conversations.
The cross-examinations have proved the exact facts under oath.

"Mr. Jerome, finding his informants in certain lines falsified, concluded by more usual methods, which is to his credit.

"However, from some of his questions and some of his unprofessional remarks in court it appears clearly that the natural and real goodness of the witness is above his comprehension."

Thaw began the preparation of his statement Wednesday afternoon. One of the newspaper desks adjoins the table occupied by his counsel, and a reporter sitting near the defendant read over the latter's shoulder the two opening paragraphs. When the paper appeared with the extracts from his statement printed in display type, Thaw was much chagrined. Thursday in court he took the reporter to task.
He said he had not intended making the statement public until the end of the trial. He further asserted that many mistakes appeared in the portion of the state that was published, and added that he might make a correction later.

Wednesday night in his cell in the tomb Thaw completed his statement, and Thursday, after he had spoken to the reporter who had looked over his shoulder, he handed the original draft to another reporter, whom he had known for many years, and in whom he had confidence. He also handed the newspaper man a brown envelope.

"Seal the statement up in this envelope," said Thaw, "and write your name across the flap. I am going to have some typewritten copies made, and when they are done I want you to compare them with the original, and if they are all right they will be given out."

Daniel O'Reilly, one of Thaw's lawyers, said that he also had a copy of Thaw's statement, but would not give it out until the defendant directed him to do so. Late Thursday afternoon the typewritten copies suddenly appeared in court. Attention was first attracted to them by Thaw handing a carbon copy to his newspaper friend, and asking him to compare it with the original. Four or five other copies lay on the counsel table, in front of the defendant. One of the reporters reached over, picked up the copies and hastily left the court room. He was quickly followed by other reporters, and soon the statement was being flashed into newspaper offices throughout the country.

The copies and the original were exact, and Thaw then said he was content to have the statement released as a correction to the garbled statement which appeared that morning.

Clifford W. Hartridge and Mr. De-mas declared they had no knowledge of the statement having been prepared or given out.

FIRE FROM SPRINGFIELDS.

Major Blockson So Testified In the Penrose Courtmartial.

San Antonio, March 1.—Major A. P.
Blockson went on the stand in the Penrose courtmartial. He told of finding bullet holes—one in the Yturria House being in the shape of a groove and sighting along this found that it pointed directly to the rear of the gallery of Company B barracks. Witness stated that all the bullets he found in the houses of the own were fired from Springfield army rifles. By measurements taken by him of instances of various places mentioned in accounting the affray, he testified that negro soldiers could easily have done acts with which they are charged, and have returned to their quarters before roll call was completed.

Leonarda Sanchez, who testified that she heard negro soldiers warn a negro woman that there would be shooting, completed her testimony, and was excused.

tion of His Beard.

Wellston, O., March 1.—Samuel

cruit court against the Southern Ohio ant growth of whiskers burned off in a gas explosion in this city two years ago.

Consigned to Both.

New Orleans, March 1.—It develops that firearms consigned to both the Nicaraguan and Honduran governments are being held up here—twenty-five cases of rifles for the former nation and forty-three for the latter.
United States District Attorney Howe has wired the treasury department for instructions regarding the shipments.

Boundary Treaty Ratified.

Washington, March 1.—The senate has ratified the treaty with Mexico determining the boundary between the United States and Mexico by eliminating the "bances" in the Rio Grande.
